We are dedicated to supporting local and regional growers while providing you with the best tasting, freshest, healthiest foods available. With that (and the seasons of availability) in mind, you will find that we use local eggs, meats, flour, corn meal, beans, honey, greens, fruits and vegetables as often as we can get them.

We believe that a community can only thrive when its members rely on each other and support each other. To that end, we pledge to do just that to the best of our abilities.
